From the Chair:

As we reflect on 2012, amazing memories have been made for the members of ICAC. While I wish we could report on every success, I hope the events mentioned will give a sense of how dynamic and progressive we have been at the Ingersoll Creative Arts Centre.

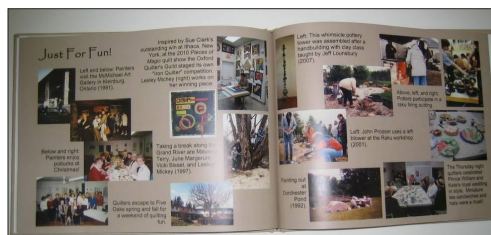

Our 40th anniversary festivities have been fantastic, as we celebrated with our members, sponsors and the community.

The Hot Art Auction, our wonderful new fundraiser, hosted more than 150 participants at the Ingersoll Fire Hall. One hundred one donated items were sold in our silent and live auctions. We hope to repeat this event in the future.

The Board of Directors, along with five community members engaged in several workshops that looked at the future direction of ICAC. We developed a detailed strategic plan designed to focus and guide our development in administration, finances, programs, membership, facility, partnerships, and volunteers. Some of these innovations have already been implemented, and others are being worked on.

Thank you to all our volunteers, committees, and donors who have contributed to making this year so successful.

Members 40th Anniversary

THANKS - 40th Anniversary

A huge thank-you to all who helped to make our 40th Anniversary so special!! - Oxford Quilters' Guild for allowing us to bring all I CAC members together for celebrations at their November 1st meetings; the 40th Anniversary committee - Erika Lorenzen, Gail Winterton, Sharyn Hammond, Sharon Kruse, Isabel Ward, Keri Axon for helping to plan and carry out the event; Karen MacKay, Laura Finkbiner, Silvana Mior and all who helped with the reception in any way; Ineke Rombouts, for the spectacular floral arrangements; all who volunteered their time to demonstrate on Saturday and Sunday. Your many hands made a great celebration!!

Memory Book

The photobook that traces our history from the early years to the present was made possible by the extraordinary computer skills of Pamela Seeds. I can't thank Pamela enough for the generous commitment of time to create this pictorial record of our activities and achievements over the years. The order has gone in for those who requested a copy and the Memory Books should arrive soon.

Donors and Sponsors

I CAC very much relies and appreciates your financial contributions to our centre. Your generosity allows us to offer programs for both adults and children, in various art forms and assists in the daily running of our arts centre.

We invite all of our members to consider being a donor to the Ingersoll Creative Arts Centre for the year 2012. Donations can be made at our office in person, or by mail or phone. If you would like a donation receipt, the donation must be made by Dec. 31st, 2012. Tax receipts will be sent out by the end of February. If you require a tax receipt before this date, please contact Judi Boodhoo at 519-485-4691.

Queen Elizabeth II Diamond Jubilee Medal Winner

On November 10, 2012, Carol McLean was awarded a Queen Elizabeth II Diamond Jubilee Medal. A lot of Carol's contribution to the local community has been through the Ingersoll Creative Arts Centre over the past many years and through teaching for Continuing Education for over 25 years.

Carol's contribution to the larger National community has been through Canadian Quilters Association at National conferences. Congratulations, Carol.
